SPRING IS ALMOST HERE

March 13, 2016

MARCH IS HERE ! Which means Spring is just a few weeks away and I couldn't be more excited! Technically it is still winter in New York but, the weather has been very good to us these past few days . Of course, I had to take a advantage of the beautiful weather and go to the one place i love the most . THE BEACH!

My friend Rai who happens to be a phenominal photographer joined me and we decided to shoot while we ate, laughed and caught the most beautiful sunset . Living in New York its so easy to get caught up on always being on the Go. Whether is working, running errands, meeting up with friends etc. It always nice to just take a break, breathe and count your blessings <3

African print fabric I purchased in Ghana. I have been working with "Ghana Make A Difference". Which is a non-profit organization whose goals are to make a difference in the lives of Ghanaian children by providing them with a place they can call home. A home that includes food, shelter and physical, mental and emotional nurturing while trying to reintegrate them with their biological family or find them a new adoptive family. They sell great handmade Ghanaian products that are made in local markets in Ghana. 100% of the money goes to orphanages in Ghana. Including Savior Children Foundation (the orphanage I was volunteering in). Check out their amazing organization and products on
